Grand Rapids, Michigan — Premier provider of siding, pattern and trim solutions, UFP-Edge, is pleased to unveil its latest distribution partnership with Dixie Plywood & Lumber Company (Dixieply). With locations in Texas, Tennessee, Georgia, North Carolina and Florida, Dixieply has been providing building solutions since 1944. Dixieply is a 100% employee-owned distributor known for their strong commitment to customer satisfaction and company culture. This key partnership will bring UFP-Edge's design-forward wood products into Florida with locations servicing Tampa, Fort Lauderdale, and Orlando.

Effective today, Dixieply will begin offering a selection of UFP-Edge's premium products, including Thermally Modified Wood Collection and Timeless Shiplap. This partnership will help satisfy the increasing demand for high-quality wood products in the Southeast.

Director of National Sales for UFP-Edge, Brendan Moloney, shared his excitement about this new alliance, "Dixieply is a well-respected leader in the market with a longstanding history of excellence, establishing them as the ideal partner for delivering outstanding products with impeccable service. This partnership is a significant step towards offering nationwide access to our products."

"We are excited to grow and innovate with UFP-Edge as our partner. This partnership will allow us to broaden our product range and offer cutting-edge solutions in the thermally modified wood market.," expressed Scott McCawley, General Manager of the Fort Lauderdale branch.

This strategic partnership represents another significant milestone in UFP-Edge's efforts to expand its national presence and reaffirms its commitment to offering customers innovative and sustainable wood product solutions.
